Martin Grainger, Head of Planning
Selby District Council

Re: Unauthorised encampment, Hillam Lane, Hillam

Dear Mr Grainger,

Thank you for your efforts with regards to the unauthorised encampment on Hillam Lane to date. I write on behalf of Hillam Parish Council which has to insist the District Council continues to strongly resist such blatant disregard for the planning system, the planning process and the Hillam Community.

It is understood that there are legal processes to be followed and timeframes that must be adhered to but Hillam Parish Council and residents of Hillam urge the District Council to defend and protect the beautiful countryside we live in against the reckless defacement it is currently subject to. The evidence of defecation and urination on Fairfield Lane opposite the site, police reports of poaching and lamping, and the presence of a large group of people who clearly have a lack of regard for the system and the Hillam community, has resulted in residents who feel intimidated and fearful of repercussions if they submit objections.

The Green Belt is highly protected for a reason, this kind of unconsidered, unauthorised and wholly inappropriate development cannot be allowed to appear overnight and expect to be able to stay.

We are grateful to Councillor Mackman for keeping the Parish Council up to date on the matter and welcome any information or insight you may have to add. The Parish Council are aware that this will likely be a slow process but it seeks assurance that the issue will remain a priority for the District Council and that the District Council will do everything within its means to see the removal of this encampment is carried out.

Yours sincerely,

Juvina Janik
On behalf of Hillam Parish Council
